

Contents

Preface		xix
Acknowledgments		xxi
part I	Reading and Writing Like a Lawyer	1
chapter 1	Introduction to Legal Writing	3
	1. Objective Documents	3
	2. Persuasive Documents	4
chapter 2	Reading and Understanding Authorities	5
	1. Reading Constitutions and Statutes	6
	2. Reading and Briefing a Case	8
	Sample Case Brief 2.1	15
chapter 3	It Depends on the “Anchors”	16
	1. Identifying the Anchors in a Single Case	17
	2. Synthesizing Multiple Cases Using the Anchors	17
chapter 4	Understanding Hierarchy of Authority	21
	1. Primary Authorities	21
	2. Secondary Authorities	31
chapter 5	The Format for Legal Analysis	32
	1. CREAC	32
	2. IRAC	35
chapter 6	The Format for Exam Essays	37
	1. Read Twice	37
	2. Identify Issues	39
	3. Write in IRAC or CREAC	41
	4. Proofread	45
	Torts Essay Answer Example	46
part II	Objective Writing	49
chapter 7	Constructing CREAC in Objective Documents	51
chapter 8	Writing an Objective Issue Statement	52
	1. Step One: Identify The Precise Legal Issue	52
	2. Step Two: Develop Your Legal Question – The Question Presented	53

chapter 9	Writing an Objective Conclusion	58
	1. Step One: Develop Your Answer – The Brief Answer	58
	2. Step Two: State Your Conclusion and Give a Reason	59
chapter 10	Writing an Objective Rule Section	62
	1. Step One: Organize Rules from General to Specific	62
	2. Step Two: Include Quotations of Key Language	66
	3. Step Three: Cite Correctly	67
chapter 11	Writing an Objective Explanation Section	69
	1. Step One: Focus on the Anchors That Relate to Your Question	70
	2. Step Two: Understand the Big Picture	71
	3. Step Three: Use Cases to Describe Your Anchors	72
chapter 12	Writing an Objective Analysis Section	81
	1. Step One: Start with a Broad Thesis	82
	2. Step Two: Use Topic Sentences to Organize Your Analysis Around Arguments Based on the Anchors	83
	3. Step Three: Describe How the Relevant Facts Support Your Arguments	84
	4. Step Four: Analogize and Distinguish	85
	5. Step Five: Detail Counterarguments; Then Refute and Resolve Them	93
chapter 13	Writing an Objective Conclusion	97
part III	Putting the Legal Memorandum Together	101
chapter 14	Incorporating Your CREAC into a Cohesive Document	103
chapter 15	Create a Template for Your Memo	104
	1. Use a Formal Memorandum Heading	105
	2. Create the Headings for the Additional Memo Parts	105
chapter 16	Outline and Draft Your Facts Section	106
	1. Identify the Important Facts	106
	2. Tie the Story Together	106
chapter 17	Draft an Umbrella for Complex Memos	110
chapter 18	Create a Cohesive Document	112
	1. Add Subheadings for Each CREAC in Multiple-Issue Memos	112
	2. Add a Separate Conclusion Section if it Would Help the Reader	113
	3. Review Your Entire Memo	113
	4. Revise, Revise, Revise	114
	5. Review Examples	115
	Example Memo 18.1	116
	Example Memo 18.2	119
	Example Memo 18.3	123
	Example Memo 18.4	127

part IV	Writing Tools for the New Legal Writer	135
chapter 19	Introduction to Grammar, Punctuation, and Style	137
chapter 20	Grammar Basics	138
	1. Sentences	138
	2. Commas—Five Rules That Could Save You Millions	141
	3. Semicolons	145
	4. Colons	147
	5. Modifiers	148
	6. Pronouns	149
	7. Apostrophes	153
	8. Hyphens	155
chapter 21	Grammar Principles for the New Legal Writer	157
	1. Prefer the Active Voice	157
	2. Use Parallel Construction	158
	3. Quote with Care	159
	4. Use Em-Dashes and Parentheses to Shift Emphasis	162
chapter 22	Plain Language	165
	1. Make Every Word Count	165
	2. Use Vigorous English	169
	3. Use Short Words, Short Sentences, and Short Paragraphs	171
chapter 23	Confused, Misused, and Misspelled Words	174
	Commonly Confused, Misused, and Misspelled Words	175
chapter 24	Writing Style	176
part V	Persuasive Writing	179
chapter 25	Constructing CREAC in Persuasive Documents	181
chapter 26	Writing a Persuasive Conclusion	183
	1. Step One: Identify the Requested Relief and the Issue	183
	2. Step Two: State Your Conclusion and Give a Reason	184
	3. Step Three: Develop a Theme	185
	4. Step Four: Draft Your Point Headings	187
chapter 27	Writing a Persuasive Rule Section	190
	1. Step One: Organize Rules from General to Specific	190
	2. Step Two: Present Rules Accurately and Persuasively	193
	3. Step Three: Check Your Citations	195
chapter 28	Writing a Persuasive Explanation Section	196
	1. Step One: Categorize the Cases	196
	2. Step Two: Identify the Anchors and Synthesize Multiple Cases	197
	3. Step Three: Use Cases to Emphasize the Persuasive Anchors	199
chapter 29	Writing a Persuasive Analysis Section	207
	1. Step One: Start Off Strong—Organize and Outline Your Analysis	208
	2. Step Two: Begin with a Broad Thesis That Incorporates Your Theme	209

	3. Step Three: Use Topic Sentences to Organize Your Analysis, and Lead with Your Best Argument	211
	4. Step Four: Provide Factual Support for Each Argument by Recruiting Relevant Facts	212
	5. Step Five: Provide Legal Support for Each Argument by Analogizing and Distinguishing Relevant Cases	214
	6. Step Six: Affirmatively Refute Counterarguments	219
chapter 30	Writing a Persuasive Conclusion	223
part VI	Putting Persuasive Documents Together	225
chapter 31	Introduction to Persuasive Documents	227
chapter 32	Trial Court Documents	228
	1. Step One: Create a Template for Your Document	229
	2. Step Two: Prepare a Persuasive Facts or Background Section	231
	3. Step Three: Prepare a Legal Standard Section if Necessary	238
	4. Step Four: Add Persuasive Umbrellas and Subheadings to Guide the Court	239
	5. Step Five: Write a Compelling Introduction	242
	6. Step Six: Scrutinize and Revise	243
	Example Motion 32.1	245
	Example Motion 32.2	252
	Example Motion 32.3	263
	Example Motion 32.4	271
chapter 33	Appellate Briefs	277
	1. Step One: Create a Template Based on the Requirements of the Appellate Rules of Procedure and Local Rules	278
	2. Step Two: Research and Draft the Standard of Review	280
	3. Step Three: Prepare a Persuasive Issue Presented	281
	4. Step Four: Draft a Persuasive Facts Section, Including Procedural History	282
	5. Step Five: Write a Forceful Summary of Argument	284
	6. Step Six: Create a Complete, Cohesive Document	285
	7. Step Seven: Set Aside, Then Revise	286
	Example Appellate Brief 33.1	287
part VII	Other Legal Communication	301
chapter 34	Introduction to Other Forms of Legal Communication	303
chapter 35	Letters	304
	1. The Correct Date	305
	2. The Method of Transmission	306
	3. A Properly Formatted Recipient Name and Address	306
	4. A Useful Re: Line	306
	5. An Appropriate Greeting	307
	6. A Professional Style That Is Tailored to the Recipient	307
	7. A Customary Closing	309

	8. Examples of Professional Letters	309
	Example Letter 35.1	310
	Example Letter 35.2	312
	Example Letter 35.3	315
chapter 36	Email	316
	1. A “To” Line That Includes Only the Correct and Necessary Recipients	316
	2. A Subject Line That Is Brief, Substantive, and Specific	317
	3. A Greeting That Is Professional	317
	4. A Format and Writing Style That Is Simple and Direct	317
	5. An Appropriate Closing and Signature Block	321
	6. Attachments That Are Properly Titled and Attached	322
	7. A Concern for Privilege and Privacy	322
	8. Examples of Effective Emails	323
	Example Email 36.1	324
	Example Email 36.2	325
	Example Email 36.3	326
	Example Email 36.4	327
	Example Email 36.5	328
	Example Email 36.6	330
chapter 37	Messaging and New Technology	333
	1. Err on the Side of Formality	333
	2. Pause Before Pressing “Send”	334
	3. Be Vigilant Regarding Confidentiality	334
chapter 38	Judicial Opinions	335
	1. Step One: Identify the Issue(s) for Analysis	336
	2. Step Two: Outline and Draft Each Part	337
	3. Step Three: Proofread to Perfection	342
	4. Example of Award-Winning Opinion Writing	342
chapter 39	Oral Arguments	347
	1. Step One: Develop a Plan	348
	2. Step Two: Prepare for a Conversation, Not a Speech	356
	3. Step Three: Follow Rules of Decorum	361
part VIII	Research and Citation	363
chapter 40	Introduction to Legal Research and Citation	365
chapter 41	Legal Research Basics	366
	1. The Process of Legal Research	366
	2. The Sources for Legal Research	367
chapter 42	Creating a Research Plan	371
	1. Step One: Formulate a Research Question	371
	2. Step Two: Identify the Relevant Jurisdiction	372
	3. Step Three: Generate Search Terms	373
chapter 43	Smart Research Strategies	375
	1. Move from General to Specific	375
	2. Use Free Sources First	377

3. Don't Start from Scratch	378
4. Browse	381
5. Build in Redundancy	382
6. Run Searches of the Right Size on Fee-Based Platforms	383
7. Validate and Update	384
8. Cite Correctly	385
chapter 44 Citation	386
1. Citation Is a Language	386
2. Master the Most Common Formats and Be Consistent	387
3. Use the Index, Tables, and Quick Reference Guides for Everything Else	396
4. Learn the Rules That Arise Frequently	397
5. Know Which Case to Cite	402
6. Cite Correctly as You Write	402
Index	403