

Contents

Table of Problems . . . . .	xxvii
Preface to the Fifth Edition for Teachers and Students . . . . .	xxxi
Acknowledgments . . . . .	xxxvii
A Note to Students About Updates to This Book . . . . .	xlvii

Introduction 1

A. Ethics, morals, and professionalism . . . . .	1
B. Some central themes in this book . . . . .	7
1. Conflicts of interest . . . . .	7
2. Truthfulness . . . . .	8
3. Lawyers' duties to clients versus their duties to the justice system . . . . .	8
4. Lawyers' personal and professional interests versus their ethical and fiduciary obligations . . . . .	9
5. Self-interest as a theme in regulation of lawyers . . . . .	10
6. Lawyers as employees: Institutional pressures on ethical judgments . . . . .	11
7. The changing legal profession . . . . .	12
C. The structure of this book . . . . .	12
D. The rules quoted in this book: A note on sources . . . . .	14
E. Stylistic decisions . . . . .	15

Chapter 1: The Legal Profession: Bar Admission, History, and Diversity 17

A. Admission to the bar . . . . .	18
1. Bar admission in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries . . . . .	18
2. Contemporary bar admission requirements . . . . .	19
3. The bar examination . . . . .	20
4. The character and fitness inquiry . . . . .	22

- a. Criteria for evaluation . . . . . 23
- b. Filling out the character questionnaire . . . . . 29
  - Problem 1-1: Adderall . . . . . 33
- c. Mental health questions about applicants . . . . . 35
- d. Law school discipline: A preliminary screening process . . . . . 37
  - Problem 1-2: The Doctored Resume . . . . . 38
- B. History and development of the U.S. legal profession . . . . . 39
  - 1. Pre-revolutionary America . . . . . 39
  - 2. The nineteenth and twentieth centuries . . . . . 40
  - 3. History of American legal education . . . . . 42
- C. Diversity and discrimination in the legal profession . . . . . 46
  - 1. Women lawyers . . . . . 47
  - 2. Lawyers who are people of color . . . . . 54
  - 3. Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer lawyers . . . . . 60
  - 4. Lawyers with disabilities . . . . . 61
  - 5. Lawyers from low-income families . . . . . 62
  - 6. Other bases of discrimination in the legal profession . . . . . 62

Chapter 2: The Legal Profession: Regulation, Discipline, and Liability 65

- A. Institutions that regulate lawyers . . . . . 66
  - 1. The highest state courts . . . . . 69
  - 2. State and local bar associations . . . . . 71
  - 3. Lawyer disciplinary agencies . . . . . 72
  - 4. American Bar Association . . . . . 72
  - 5. American Law Institute . . . . . 74
  - 6. Federal and state courts . . . . . 75
  - 7. Legislatures . . . . . 76
  - 8. Administrative agencies . . . . . 77
  - 9. Prosecutors . . . . . 78
  - 10. Malpractice insurers . . . . . 79
  - 11. Law firms and other employers . . . . . 80
  - 12. Clients . . . . . 80
- B. State ethics codes . . . . . 81
- C. The disciplinary system . . . . . 86
  - 1. Grounds for discipline . . . . . 92
    - Problem 2-1: The Dying Mother . . . . . 97
  - 2. Reporting misconduct by other lawyers . . . . . 109
    - a. The duty to report misconduct . . . . . 109
      - Problem 2-2: Exculpatory Evidence . . . . . 112

b. Lawyers' responsibility for ethical misconduct by colleagues and superiors . . . . .	114
Problem 2-3: The Little Hearing . . . . .	120
c. Legal protections for subordinate lawyers . . . . .	123
The Wieder case . . . . .	124
Case study: The strange tale of Scott McKay Wolas. . . . .	125
D. Civil liability . . . . .	130
1. Legal malpractice . . . . .	130
2. Malpractice insurance . . . . .	135
3. Other civil liability . . . . .	137
a. Liability for breach of contract . . . . .	137
b. Liability for violation of regulatory statutes . . . . .	138
4. Disqualification for conflicts of interest . . . . .	138
E. Criminal liability . . . . .	139
F. Client protection funds . . . . .	143
G. Summing up: The law governing lawyers . . . . .	149

Chapter 3: Relationships Between Lawyers and Clients 151

A. Formation of the lawyer-client relationship . . . . .	152
1. Lawyer discretion in selection of clients . . . . .	152
2. Offering advice as the basis for a lawyer-client relationship . . . . .	158
Togstad v. Vesely, Otto, Miller & Keefe . . . . .	159
B. Lawyers' duties of competence, diligence, honesty, and communication . . .	166
1. Competence . . . . .	166
Problem 3-1: The Washing Machine . . . . .	169
2. Competence in criminal cases . . . . .	170
a. Strickland v. Washington . . . . .	171
b. The aftermath of Strickland . . . . .	173
Missouri v. Frye . . . . .	179
Lafler v. Cooper . . . . .	180
Problem 3-2: A Desire to Investigate . . . . .	181
3. Diligence . . . . .	183
4. Candor and communication . . . . .	184
a. Is it ever okay to lie? . . . . .	184
b. Lying versus deception: Is there a moral distinction? . . . . .	186
c. The intention of the speaker . . . . .	187
d. Honesty and communication under the ethics rules . . . . .	187
e. Civil liability for dishonesty to clients . . . . .	189
5. Candor in counseling . . . . .	191
Problem 3-3: Torture . . . . .	192
6. Duties imposed by contract in addition to those imposed by the ethics codes . . . . .	195

- 7. Agreements to limit the scope of representation. . . . . 196
- 8. Contractual modification of a lawyer’s duties: Collaborative law practice. . . . . 201
- C. Lawyers’ responsibilities as agents. . . . . 203
  - 1. Express and implied authority . . . . . 204
  - 2. Apparent authority . . . . . 204
  - 3. Authority to settle litigation . . . . . 205
- D. Who calls the shots?. . . . . 206
  - 1. The competent adult client. . . . . 206
    - Jones v. Barnes. . . . . 210
  - 2. Clients with diminished capacity . . . . . 215
    - a. Assessing diminished capacity. . . . . 215
    - b. Options available to attorneys when clients have diminished capacity. . . . . 216
      - Problem 3-4: Vinyl Windows. . . . . 220
    - c. Juveniles . . . . . 222
      - Frances Gall Hill, Clinical Education and the “Best Interest” Representation of Children in Custody Disputes: Challenges and Opportunities in Lawyering and Pedagogy . . . . . 224
      - Problem 3-5: The Foster Child . . . . . 226
- E. Terminating a lawyer-client relationship . . . . . 229
  - 1. Duties to the client at the end of the relationship . . . . . 229
    - Problem 3-6: The Candid Notes . . . . . 232
  - 2. Grounds for termination before the work is completed. . . . . 233
    - a. When continued representation would involve illegal or unethical conduct . . . . . 233
    - b. If the lawyer becomes impaired. . . . . 234
    - c. When the client fires the lawyer . . . . . 234
    - d. When the lawyer wants to terminate the relationship . . . . . 234
    - e. Matters in litigation . . . . . 235
    - f. When the client stops paying the fee . . . . . 236
    - g. When the case imposes an unreasonable financial burden on the lawyer . . . . . 236
    - h. When the client will not cooperate. . . . . 236
  - 3. Collection of fees . . . . . 237

Chapter 4: The Duty to Protect Client Confidences 239

- A. The basic principle of confidentiality . . . . . 240
  - 1. What is confidential?. . . . . 240
    - Problem 4-1: Your Dinner with Anna . . . . . 244

- 2. Protection of information if there is a reasonable prospect of harm to a client’s interests .....248
- 3. The bottom line on informal communications .....249
- 4. Additional cautions about protecting client confidences.....250
- 5. Confidentiality and technology.....251
- B. Exceptions to the duty to protect confidences ..... 254
  - 1. Informed consent and implied authorization .....256
  - 2. Revelation of past criminal conduct .....258
    - Case study: The defense of Robert Garrow.....258
    - Problem 4-2: The Buried Bodies, Scene 1 .....258
    - Problem 4-3: The Buried Bodies, Scene 2 .....263
    - What happened next .....264
    - The Belge case .....265
    - People v. Belge.....265
    - People v. Belge (appeal) .....267
    - Problem 4-4: The Buried Bodies, Scene 3 .....268
  - 3. The risk of future injury or death .....269
    - Spaulding v. Zimmerman .....272
    - Spaulding v. Zimmerman (appeal).....273
    - Problem 4-5: Rat Poison .....281
  - 4. Client frauds and crimes that cause financial harm .....282
    - a. Ethics rules allowing revelation of client crimes or frauds to prevent, mitigate, or remedy harm to others..... 283
    - b. Enron, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and Rules 1.6(b)(2) and (3) .... 286
    - c. Subsequent developments in the implementation of Sarbanes-Oxley ..... 288
      - Problem 4-6: Reese’s Leases .....292
  - 5. Revealing confidences to obtain advice about legal ethics.....294
  - 6. Using a client’s confidential information to protect the lawyer’s interests.....295
  - 7. Revealing confidences to comply with a court order or other law ...299
  - 8. Revealing confidences to prevent certain conflicts of interest .....299
- C. Use or disclosure of confidential information for personal gain or to benefit another client ..... 300
  - Problem 4-7: An Investment Project.....301
- D. Talking to clients about confidentiality..... 302

Chapter 5: The Attorney-Client Privilege and the Work Product Doctrine 303

- A. Confidentiality and attorney-client privilege compared ..... 304
  - 1. Source of the privilege.....305
  - 2. Scope of the privilege .....305

- 3. Methods of enforcing the privilege . . . . . 306
- B. The elements of attorney-client privilege . . . . . 306
  - 1. Communication . . . . . 306
  - 2. Privileged persons . . . . . 307
  - 3. Communication in confidence . . . . . 308
  - 4. Communication for the purpose of seeking legal assistance . . . . . 311
- C. Asserting the privilege . . . . . 315
- D. Waiver of the privilege . . . . . 317
- E. Exceptions to the privilege . . . . . 320
  - 1. The Sixth Amendment . . . . . 320
  - 2. Lawyer self-defense . . . . . 321
  - 3. Other revelations permitted or required by the ethics codes . . . . . 321
    - Problem 5-1: Murder for Hire . . . . . 322
  - 4. The crime-fraud exception . . . . . 324
    - Problem 5-2: The Payoff . . . . . 328
- F. The death of the client . . . . . 330
  - 1. Introduction . . . . . 330
    - Problem 5-3: A Secret Confession . . . . . 331
  - 2. The suicide of Vincent Foster . . . . . 332
    - a. Factual background . . . . . 332
    - b. The Supreme Court evaluates the privilege claim . . . . . 333
      - Swidler & Berlin v. United States . . . . . 333
- G. The attorney-client privilege for corporations . . . . . 335
- H. The attorney-client privilege for government officials . . . . . 340
- I. The work product doctrine . . . . . 340
  - Problem 5-4: Worldwide Bribery . . . . . 344

Chapter 6: Conflicts of Interest: Current Clients 347

- A. An introduction to conflicts of interest . . . . . 348
  - 1. What makes the study of conflicts difficult . . . . . 351
  - 2. How the conflicts chapters are organized . . . . . 353
  - 3. How the conflicts rules are organized . . . . . 354
- B. General principles in evaluating concurrent conflicts . . . . . 355
  - 1. Rule 1.7 . . . . . 355
    - a. Direct adversity . . . . . 357
    - b. Material limitation . . . . . 358
  - 2. How to evaluate conflicts . . . . . 359
  - 3. Nonconsentable conflicts . . . . . 360
    - a. The lawyer’s reasonable belief . . . . . 360
    - b. Representation prohibited by law . . . . . 361
    - c. Suing one client on behalf of another client . . . . . 362

4. Informed consent . . . . .363

5. Withdrawal and disqualification . . . . .368

Problem 6-1: The Injured Passengers, Scene 1 . . . . .370

6. Imputation of concurrent conflicts . . . . .370

Problem 6-2: Food Poisoning. . . . . .372

C. Conflicts between current clients in litigation . . . . . 374

    1. Suing a current client . . . . .375

Problem 6-3: I Thought You Were My Lawyer! . . . . .377

    2. Cross-examining a current client . . . . .377

    3. Representation of co-plaintiffs or co-defendants in civil litigation . . . . .379

Problem 6-4: The Injured Passengers, Scene 2 . . . . .382

    4. Representing economic competitors in unrelated matters . . . . .383

    5. Positional conflicts: Taking inconsistent legal positions in litigation . . . . .383

Problem 6-5: Top Gun. . . . . .385

D. Conflicts involving prospective clients . . . . . 387

Problem 6-6: The Secret Affair . . . . .390

Chapter 7: Conflicts Involving Former Clients 393

A. Nature of conflicts between present and former clients . . . . . 394

B. Duties to former clients . . . . . 396

C. Distinguishing present and former clients . . . . . 397

Problem 7-1: Keeping in Touch. . . . . .399

Problem 7-2: A Better Client . . . . .402

D. Evaluating successive conflicts . . . . . 403

    1. The same matter . . . . .404

    2. Substantial relationship . . . . .404

    3. Material adversity . . . . .413

E. Addressing former client conflicts in practice . . . . . 415

F. Conflicts between the interests of a present client and a client who was represented by a lawyer's former firm . . . . . 416

    1. Analyzing former firm conflicts . . . . .418

    2. Using or revealing a former client's confidences . . . . .419

G. Imputation of former client conflicts to affiliated lawyers . . . . . 420

Problem 7-3: Toxic Waste . . . . .425

Problem 7-4: A Brief Consultation . . . . .432

Problem 7-5: The Fatal Shot. . . . . .436

Chapter 8: Conflicts Issues in Particular Practice Settings 439

- A. Representing both parties to a transaction . . . . . 440
- B. Representing organizations . . . . . 444
  - 1. Who is the client? . . . . . 447
    - Problem 8-1: My Client’s Subsidiary . . . . . 449
  - 2. Representing the entity and employees . . . . . 450
  - 3. Duty to protect confidences of employees . . . . . 451
  - 4. Responding to unlawful conduct by corporate officers and other employees . . . . . 452
  - 5. Entity lawyers on boards of directors . . . . . 453
    - Problem 8-2: “Don’t Rock the Boat” . . . . . 454
- C. Representing co-defendants in criminal cases . . . . . 454
  - 1. Costs and benefits of joint representation of co-defendants . . . . . 454
  - 2. Conflicts issues and Sixth Amendment concerns in criminal defense . . . . . 457
    - Problem 8-3: Police Brutality, Scene 1 . . . . . 464
    - Problem 8-4: Police Brutality, Scene 2 . . . . . 465
    - Problem 8-5: Police Brutality, Scene 3 . . . . . 466
- D. Representing co-defendants in civil cases . . . . . 468
  - Problem 8-6: The Rental Car . . . . . 468
- E. Representing family members . . . . . 469
  - 1. Representing both spouses in a divorce . . . . . 469
  - 2. Representing family members in estate planning . . . . . 470
    - Florida Bar Opinion 95-4 (1997) . . . . . 470
    - Problem 8-7: Representing the McCarthys . . . . . 472
- F. Representing insurance companies and insured persons . . . . . 474
- G. Representing employers and immigrant employees . . . . . 478
- H. Representing plaintiffs in class actions . . . . . 480
- I. Representing parties to aggregate settlements of individual cases . . . . . 484

Chapter 9: Conflicts of Interest Between Lawyers and Clients 489

- A. Legal fees . . . . . 492
  - 1. Lawyer-client fee contracts . . . . . 492
    - a. Types of fee agreements . . . . . 492
    - b. Reasonable fees . . . . . 493
      - Matter of Fordham: When a fee may be considered excessive.* . . . . . 497
    - c. Communication about fee arrangements . . . . . 500

Problem 9-1: An Unreasonable Fee? . . . . .	503
d. Modification of fee agreements . . . . .	504
Problem 9-2: Rising Prices . . . . .	504
2. Regulation of hourly billing and billing for expenses . . . . .	505
Patrick J. Schiltz, On Being a Happy, Healthy, and Ethical Member of an Unhappy, Unhealthy, and Unethical Profession. . . . .	507
Lisa G. Lerman, Scenes from a Law Firm . . . . .	520
3. Contingent fees . . . . .	526
a. In general . . . . .	526
b. Criminal and domestic relations cases . . . . .	531
4. Forbidden and restricted fee and expense arrangements. . . . .	533
a. Buying legal claims . . . . .	533
b. Financial assistance to a client . . . . .	534
Problem 9-3: An Impoverished Client . . . . .	535
c. Publication rights. . . . .	536
d. Advance payment of fees and nonrefundable retainer fees . . . . .	537
5. Fee disputes. . . . .	539
a. Prospective limitations of lawyers' liability and settlement of claims against lawyers. . . . .	539
b. Fee arbitration . . . . .	542
c. Collection of fees . . . . .	543
d. Fees owed to a lawyer who withdraws or is fired before the matter is completed. . . . .	545
6. Dividing fees with other firms or with nonlawyers . . . . .	546
a. Division of fees between lawyers not in the same firm . . . . .	546
b. Sharing fees with nonlawyers. . . . .	548
7. Payment of fees by a third party . . . . .	549
B. Lawyer as custodian of client property and documents . . . . .	550
1. Client trust accounts . . . . .	550
2. Responsibility for client property . . . . .	551
a. Prompt delivery of funds or property. . . . .	551
b. Disputes about money or property in lawyer's possession . . . . .	552
c. Lawyers' responsibilities to clients' creditors. . . . .	552
3. Administering estates and trusts . . . . .	553
C. Conflicts with lawyers' personal or business interests . . . . .	553
1. In general . . . . .	553
2. Business transactions between lawyer and client . . . . .	554
3. Gifts from clients . . . . .	559
4. Sexual relationships with clients . . . . .	560
5. Intimate or family relationships with adverse lawyers . . . . .	563
6. Imputation of lawyer-client conflicts to other lawyers in a firm. . . . .	564
a. Financial interest conflicts . . . . .	564

- b. General rule on imputation of conflicts with a lawyer’s interests . . . . . 564

Chapter 10: Conflicts Issues for Government Lawyers and Judges 567

- A. Regulation of government lawyers and those who lobby them. . . . . 568
  - 1. The law governing lobbying: An introduction . . . . . 568
  - 2. Conflict of interest and “revolving door” statutes. . . . . 570
- B. Successive conflicts of former and present government lawyers. . . . . 572
  - 1. Conflicts of former government lawyers in private practice. . . . . 573
    - a. What is a “matter”? . . . . . 574
    - b. Personal and substantial participation . . . . . 575
    - c. Screening of former government lawyers . . . . . 577
    - d. Confidential government information. . . . . 578
  - 2. Conflicts of government lawyers who formerly worked outside of government . . . . . 580
    - Problem 10-1: The District Attorney . . . . . 581
  - 3. Conflicts of private lawyers who currently represent government agencies . . . . . 581
- C. Conflicts involving judges, law clerks, arbitrators, and mediators . . . . . 583
  - 1. History of judicial ethics codes in the United States. . . . . 584
  - 2. Overview of the Model Code of Judicial Conduct . . . . . 585
  - 3. Impartiality and fairness; avoidance of bias, prejudice, and harassment . . . . . 589
  - 4. Ex parte communications. . . . . 596
  - 5. Disqualification of judges. . . . . 597
    - Problem 10-2: The Judge’s Former Professor. . . . . 606
  - 6. Conflicts rules for former judges, law clerks, arbitrators, and mediators. . . . . 608
    - a. Personal and substantial participation . . . . . 608
    - b. Imputation . . . . . 609
    - c. Employment negotiation . . . . . 609
  - 7. Conflicts rules for lawyers currently acting as third party neutrals . . . . . 610

Chapter 11: Lawyers’ Duties to Courts 613

- A. Being a good person in an adversary system . . . . . 614
  - Stephen Gillers, Can a Good Lawyer Be a Bad Person? . . . . . 616
- B. Investigation before filing a complaint . . . . . 617
  - Problem 11-1: Your Visit from Paula Jones . . . . . 623

C.	Truth and falsity in litigation . . . . .	624
1.	The rules on candor to tribunals . . . . .	624
2.	Which rule applies when? A taxonomy of truth-telling problems in litigation . . . . .	627
3.	A lawyer’s duties if a client or witness intends to give false testimony. . . . .	628
a.	When the lawyer knows that a criminal defendant intends to lie on the stand . . . . .	628
	Nix v. Whiteside : No Sixth Amendment right to testify falsely . . . . .	628
b.	A lawyer’s “knowledge” of a client’s intent to give false testimony . . . . .	629
	Problem 11-2 : Flight from Sudan, Scene 1. . . . .	631
c.	A lawyer’s duties if a client intends to mislead the court without lying . . . . .	635
	Problem 11-3 : Flight from Sudan, Scene 2. . . . .	637
d.	A lawyer’s duties if he knows that a client has lied to a tribunal . .	639
e.	Variations in state rules on candor to tribunals. . . . .	639
4.	False impressions created by lawyers during litigation. . . . .	642
	How Simpson Lawyers Bamboozled a Jury. . . . .	643
	Problem 11-4 : The Drug Test. . . . .	644
	Problem 11-5 : The Body Double. . . . .	645
5.	Lawyers’ duties of truthfulness in preparing witnesses to testify . . .	646
	Problem 11-6 : Refreshing Recollection . . . . .	650
D.	Concealment of physical evidence and documents . . . . .	651
1.	Duties of criminal defense lawyers with respect to evidence of crimes . . . . .	652
	Problem 11-7 : Child Pornography . . . . .	662
2.	Concealment of documents and other evidence in civil and criminal cases . . . . .	663
a.	A limited obligation to reveal. . . . .	663
b.	A lawyer’s duties in responding to discovery requests . . . . .	665
	Wayne D. Brazil, Views from the Front Lines: Observations by Chicago Lawyers About the System of Civil Discovery. . . .	666
	Ethics: Beyond the Rules. . . . .	668
	Problem 11-8 : The Damaging Documents . . . . .	671
E.	The duty to disclose adverse legal authority. . . . .	675
F.	Disclosures in ex parte proceedings . . . . .	677
G.	Improper influences on judges and juries . . . . .	680
1.	Improper influences on judges . . . . .	681
a.	Ex parte communication with judges . . . . .	681
b.	Campaign contributions. . . . .	682
2.	Improper influences on juries . . . . .	683

- a. Lawyers’ comments to the press . . . . . 683
  - Narrowing restrictions on trial publicity: The Gentile case . . . 683
    - Problem 11-9: A Letter to the Editor . . . . . 689
    - Scott Brede, A Notable Case of Exceptionally Unsafe Sex . . . . 690
- b. Impeachment of truthful witnesses. . . . . 691
  - Harry I. Subin, The Criminal Defense Lawyer’s “Different Mission”: Reflections on the “Right” to Present a False Case. . . . . 692
- c. Statements by lawyers during jury trials. . . . . 694
- H. Agreements not to accept future cases . . . . . 700
- I. Lawyers’ duties in nonadjudicative proceedings . . . . . 701

Chapter 12: Lawyers’ Duties to Adversaries and Third Persons 703

- A. Communications with lawyers and third persons. . . . . 704
  - 1. Deception of third persons. . . . . 704
    - a. The duty to avoid material false statements. . . . . 704
      - Problem 12-1: Emergency Food Stamps . . . . . 705
    - b. Lawyers’ duties of truthfulness in fact investigation. . . . . 707
      - The Beatles Club case . . . . . 708
      - Problem 12-2: Insurance Claims . . . . . 710
    - c. Lawyers’ duties of truthfulness in negotiation. . . . . 711
    - d. Lawyers’ duties upon receipt of inadvertently transmitted information, including metadata. . . . . 714
  - 2. Restrictions on contact with represented persons. . . . . 717
    - a. Contacts in person or by telephone . . . . . 717
      - The Messing case. . . . . 721
      - The Cronin case. . . . . 723
    - b. The use of social media to investigate adverse persons and others . . . . . 724
  - 3. Restrictions on contact with unrepresented persons . . . . . 726
    - Problem 12-3: The Complaining Witness . . . . . 731
  - 4. Respect for the rights of third persons . . . . . 733
    - Problem 12-4: The Break-In. . . . . . 734
    - Note: Stolen documents as evidence . . . . . 735
- B. Duties of prosecutors. . . . . 736
  - Ken Armstrong & Maurice Possley, Trial and Error, Part 1:
Verdict: Dishonor . . . . . 737
  - 1. Undercover investigations . . . . . 739
    - Problem 12-5: The Prosecutor’s Masquerade . . . . . 746
  - 2. The basis for charging a suspect . . . . . 747

- 3. A prosecutor’s duty to reveal exculpatory evidence .....749
  - The Duke lacrosse case .....750
- 4. A prosecutor’s duty with respect to unreliable evidence .....752
- 5. A prosecutor’s duty to avoid improper pretrial publicity.....756
- 6. Enforcement of ethical rules against prosecutors .....757
  - Ellen Yaroshefsky, Wrongful Convictions: It Is Time to Take
Prosecution Discipline Seriously .....757
- C. Conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice ..... 759
  - Problem 12-6: A Letter of Commendation .....761
- D. Are lawyers really too zealous?..... 762
  - Ted Schneyer, Moral Philosophy’s Standard Misconception of Legal Ethics.....763

Chapter 13: The Changing Landscape of Law Practice 765

- A. Unauthorized practice of law: Who can provide legal services..... 766
  - 1. Prohibition of unauthorized practice of law by nonlawyers .....767
    - Problem 13-1: Special Education.....772
  - 2. Restrictions on multistate practice by lawyers.....774
  - 3. Programs allowing nonlawyers to provide some legal assistance...780
    - a. Limited license legal technicians..... 781
    - b. Courthouse navigators ..... 782
    - c. Legal document assistants ..... 783
  - 4. New providers of legal services .....784
- B. Getting business: Advertising and solicitation..... 786
  - 1. Advertising of legal services.....786
    - Bates v. State Bar of Arizona .....787
  - 2. Solicitation of clients .....794
    - Problem 13-2: Traffic Crimes.....796
- C. Multidisciplinary practice..... 799
- D. Financing law practice..... 803
  - 1. Litigation finance: Nonlawyer funding of lawsuits .....803
  - 2. Nonlawyer ownership of and investment in law firms.....806
- E. Temporary and contract lawyers ..... 810
- F. Outsourcing legal work to cut labor costs: Offshoring and onshoring .. 812
- G. Globalization of law practice ..... 814
- H. Law practice in America: Workplace culture and professional satisfaction ..... 816
  - 1. History and growth of American law firms.....816
    - a. Large firms ..... 819
      - Michael Asimow, Embodiment of Evil: Law Firms in the Movies ..... 820

Patrick J. Schiltz, On Being a Happy, Healthy, and Ethical Member of an Unhappy, Unhealthy, and Unethical Profession . . . . . 824

b. Small firms . . . . . 826

c. Law firms in periods of economic recession . . . . . 830

2. Government and nonprofit organizations . . . . . 833

3. Professional satisfaction . . . . . 835

Chapter 14: Access to Justice: The Lawyer’s Role 839

A. The unmet need for legal services . . . . . 840

B. Sources of free legal services for those who cannot afford legal fees . . . . 846

1. Right to counsel for indigent litigants. . . . . 846

a. Criminal defendants . . . . . 846

Richard C. Dieter, With Justice for Few: The Growing Crisis in Death Penalty Representation . . . . . 850

b. Parties in civil and administrative proceedings. . . . . 853

2. Civil legal aid . . . . . 858

a. Legal Services Corporation . . . . . 858

Problem 14-1: Restrictions on Legal Services . . . . . 861

b. Other civil legal services. . . . . 862

c. Supporting legal services for indigent people with interest on trust accounts . . . . . 862

3. Fee-shifting statutes. . . . . 863

a. Fee waiver as a term of a settlement: Evans v. Jeff D. . . . . . 864

The impact of Evans . . . . . 866

b. Who is a “prevailing party” entitled to attorneys’ fees? . . . . . 867

4. Conflicts in public interest litigation. . . . . 868

Problem 14-2: The Prisoners’ Dilemma . . . . . 868

C. Pro bono representation . . . . . 869

Problem 14-3: Mandatory Pro Bono Service . . . . . 879

D. Loan forgiveness and scholarships for public service lawyers . . . . . 880

E. A concluding problem . . . . . 883

Problem 14-4: The Future of the Legal Profession . . . . . 883

About the Authors. . . . . . 885

Table of Articles, Books, and Reports . . . . . 889

Table of Cases . . . . . 913

Table of Rules, Restatements, Statutes, Bar Opinions, and Other Standards . . . . . 919

Index . . . . . 931