

Contents

A (Very) Short Preface and Request	xxi
Acknowledgments	xxiii

Chapter 1 Introduction 1

A. Sources	1
B. An Overview — The Importance of Discretion	6

Chapter 2 Early Decisions About the Newly Arrested Defendant 9

A. The Probable Cause Hearing and the Initial Appearance	9
B. Bail	11
1. The Mechanics of Bail	11
a. Bail Before the 1960s	11
b. Bail Reform in the 1960s and Later	12
c. Determining Bail	13
d. Determining the Conditions of Release	14
2. The Procedures of Bail	15
3. Preventive Detention — Security of the Community as a Criterion of Bail	17
a. The “Capital” Exception to Bail	17
b. Non-Capital Felonies	17
c. Preventive Detention — Locking the Barn While the Horse Is Still There	18
C. Pre-Trial Diversion	22
Examples/Explanations	22

Chapter 3 Charging Decisions 29

A. Introduction	29
B. The Decision to Prosecute	30
1. The Public Prosecutor	30
2. The Basic Decision — Whether to Charge	32
3. Deciding Not to Prosecute	35
a. The Victim Without a Remedy	35
b. Agreeing Not to Prosecute — Waiver of Civil Claims	38
4. WHAT to Charge	38

Contents

C. Attacking the Decision to Prosecute—The Defendant Without an Immediate Remedy	41
1. Generally	41
2. “Selective Enforcement”	41
a. Discriminatory Impact	43
b. Discriminatory Intent	44
c. Prosecutorial “Defenses” to Selective Enforcement	45
3. Vindictive Prosecution	46
D. Deciding Not to Decide—Pre-Charge or Pre-Trial Options	47
Examples/Explanations	48
Chapter 4
The Grand Jury: Gathering Information and Overseeing the Prosecutor’s Charging	55
A. Introduction	55
B. The Grand Jury as an Investigative Body	57
1. Subpoena Power	57
2. Secrecy of Grand Jury Proceedings	58
3. Conferring Immunity	59
a. Judicially Authorized Immunity	59
b. “Pocket” Immunity	60
4. “Runaway” Investigative Grand Juries	60
5. Evidence in the Grand Jury	61
a. Rules of Evidence	61
b. Exculpatory Evidence	62
6. Inapplicability of the Sixth Amendment	63
C. The Grand Jury as a Screening Device	63
1. Presentments	64
2. Indictments	64
D. Reform? or Abolish?	68
Examples/Explanations	70
Chapter 5
Alternatives to the Grand Jury: Informations and Preliminary Hearings	77
A. “Information”	77
B. Preliminary Hearing	78
Examples/Explanations	80
Chapter 6
Evidence Disclosure (Discovery)	83
Overview	84
A. “Brady” Evidence—The Constitutional Minimum	84
1. Defining “Materiality”	87
2. Aggregating the Nondisclosed Evidence	88
3. Did the “Government” Suppress the Evidence?	89
4. Did the Government “Suppress” the Evidence?	91

Contents

B. Non Constitutional Rules of Discovery	92
1. Defendant's Statements	95
2. Information About Witnesses	96
a. Names and Addresses	96
b. Statements by Witnesses	97
c. Evidence to Impeach Witnesses	97
3. Police Reports	97
4. Expert Reports and Witnesses	98
5. Information About the Police	98
6. The Work Product Exception	99
C. Timing of Discovery	100
1. Pre-trial	100
2. Post-trial	102
D. Non-Brady Discovery: A Recap	104
E. Alternative Means of Discovery	106
F. Discovery in the Real World	106
1. Frequency of Violations of Discovery Rules	106
a. The Data	106
b. Reasons for Nondisclosure	109
2. Broadening Discovery Beyond the Rules	110
G. Discovery from the Defense	111
H. Preservation of Evidence	112
I. Sanctions	114
Examples/Explanations	116

Chapter 7 Pleas of Guilt and Bargained Pleas 129

A. The Concept of "Pleading Guilty"	129
B. The Prerequisites of a Valid Guilty Plea	130
1. Voluntary	131
2. Intelligent	132
3. Knowing	133
a. Knowing the Charge — Factual Basis	133
b. Knowing the Impact — "Direct" and "Collateral"	134
Consequences	134
4. The "Conditional" Plea	138
C. Withdrawing a Guilty Plea	138
Examples/Explanations	139
D. Plea Bargaining — Bane or Salvation?	143
1. An Overview	144
2. Types of Bargains	147
3. Inducements — Or Threats?	148
4. Judicial Participation	149
5. Waiving Rights	151
6. Accepting and Enforcing the Bargain	153

Contents

7. The Contract Analogy	155
8. Assessing Plea Bargaining	156
Examples/Explanations	157
Chapter 8 The Jury	167
A. Overview	168
1. Jury — Size and Unanimity	169
2. Jury Nullification	170
B. Selecting a Jury	171
1. Determining the “District”	172
2. Determining the “Pool”	172
3. Constructing the Wheel	173
4. Composing the Wheel	174
a. The Cross-Section Requirement	174
b. What Is the “Community”?	174
c. Defining “Cognizable Groups”	174
d. Equal Protection versus the Sixth Amendment	176
e. Measuring Disproportionate Representation	177
f. State Response to a Prima Facie Case of Discrimination	177
5. The Venire — From Potential Service to Juror	178
a. Voir Dire — Establishing Information for Challenges	178
b. Voir Dire and Juror Privacy	180
c. Challenges for Cause	181
i. Pre-Trial Publicity as a Ground for Cause	183
d. Peremptory Challenges	183
i. Step One — The Prima Facie Case	186
ii. Step Two — The Neutral Explanation	186
iii. Step Three — Assessing the Claim	187
iv. Step Four — Remedy	189
e. Abolish Peremptories?	189
6. A Quick Summary	191
Examples/Explanations	191
C. The Passive Jury — And Jury Reform	197
D. The Jury — Alternate Jurors	198
E. Impeaching Jury Verdicts	198
1. Hearing the Evidence	200
a. The “External” versus “Internal” Dichotomy	200
b. Inside versus Outside the Jury	200
2. Prejudice to the Defendant	202
Examples/Explanations	202

Contents

Chapter 9	Double Jeopardy	205
A.	The General Issue	205
1.	The Purpose of Double Jeopardy	205
2.	When Does Jeopardy Begin?	207
3.	When Is a Defendant “Acquitted”?	208
4.	Double Jeopardy and Sentencing	211
B.	The “Same Offense” Doctrine	211
1.	“Punishment” for “Offenses”	211
2.	The “Same Offense” — An Overview	212
3.	The “Same Elements” Test — Blockburger v. United States	212
4.	The “Same Conduct” and the “Same Evidence” Tests	214
C.	“Multiplicity”	215
1.	Collateral Estoppel (Issue Preclusion)	216
D.	Multiple Punishments	217
E.	Joinder and Severance — The “Kissing Cousins” of Double Jeopardy	219
	Examples/Explanations	222
F.	Hung Juries, Mistrials, and Manifest Necessity	230
1.	Mistrials	230
a.	Hung Juries	231
b.	Trial Errors	231
G.	Successful Appeals: Double Jeopardy and Vindictiveness	235
H.	The Dual Sovereignty Doctrine	236
	Examples/Explanations	239
Chapter 10	Speedy Trial	247
A.	Introduction	247
1.	Pre-Indictment Delay	248
2.	Post-Indictment Delay	249
a.	What Constitutes “Speedy”?	249
b.	The Barker Test	250
i.	The Length of the Delay	250
ii.	The Reasons for the Delay	251
iii.	The Defendant’s Assertion of His Right	252
iv.	The Prejudice to the Defendant	252
3.	Delay in Sentencing	253
	Examples/Explanations	253
Chapter 11	Assistance of Counsel	257
A.	The Right to Counsel	257
B.	The Right to Counsel	258
1.	The Right to Counsel — To What Does It Apply?	259

Contents

a. What Is a “Criminal Prosecution”?	259
b. What Constitutes Part of a “Criminal Prosecution”?	259
C. The Right to Appointed Counsel	263
1. Gideon and Argersinger	263
2. The Right to Appointed Counsel — Systems of Providing Counsel	264
D. The Right to Effective Counsel	269
1. The “Three Prongs” of Ineffectiveness	270
a. State Interference	270
b. Conflict of Interest	271
i. Waiving Conflict	274
c. Effectiveness of Representation — Strickland v. Washington	275
i. The Standard of Performance	276
ii. Demonstrating Prejudice	284
2. Is Death Different?	285
3. The Right to Effective Assistance — Expert Witnesses	289
4. Raising the Right to Effective Counsel	290
5. The Right to Effective Assistance — Limits	291
6. Frivolous Appeals	291
E. Defendant Autonomy	292
1. Self-Representation	292
2. The Larger Question	296
Examples/Explanations	298

Chapter 12 Sentencing

309

A. The Importance of Sentencing Law — An Introduction	309
1. “Multiple Discretions”	309
2. Types of Punishments	310
3. Indeterminate and Determinate Sentencing Structures	311
a. Indeterminate Systems	311
b. Determinate Systems	312
B. Theories of Punishment and Sentencing	313
1. Utilitarian Theories of Punishment	313
2. Retribution as a Theory of Punishment	314
3. Proportionality	314
C. A Short History of Sentencing in the United States	315
D. Procedures at Sentencing	318
1. Rules of Evidence	318
2. Confidentiality of Information	319
3. Burden of Proof	319
4. Non-Jury Proceedings	320
5. Nonreview of Sentences	320
E. A Revolution in Sentencing — Structured Sentencing	321

Contents

1. First Caveat	321
2. The Move Away from Individualized Sentences	322
a. Mandatory Minimum Sentences	323
b. The Disappearance of Parole Release	324
c. Presumptive Sentences	325
3. State Sentencing Commissions	325
a. Guideline Systems	325
i. The “Commission”	326
ii. “Presumptive” Sentencing	326
iii. Offense-Based Sentencing; Criminal Record	327
iv. Institutional Resources	329
v. Appellate Review	329
4. Second Caveat	330
5. Federal Sentencing Commission	330
a. Guidelines	330
i. The Commission	331
ii. The Basis of the Grid	331
iii. Real Offense Sentencing	332
iv. Past Criminal Conduct	333
v. Departures	333
vi. How It Really Worked	336
6. Structured Sentencing — An Assessment	337
F. Undoing the Revolution? Or Reframing It? Blakely , Booker , and the Future of Sentencing (Structured and Unstructured) in the United States	339
1. Third Caveat — And an Apology	339
2. Blakely and Booker — Undoing the Federal Guidelines	340
3. Blakely (and Booker) in the States	343
4. Final Thoughts	345
G. Sentencing and Death	347
Examples/Explanations	350

Chapter 13 Appeals and Collateral Attack 359

A. A General Overview of Review	359
1. Why Allow Review at All?	360
2. What Is the “Scope of Review”?	361
3. What Remedy? Retroactivity and Finality; Herein of Legal Realism and Other Relevant Irrelevancies	361
B. Appeals	364
1. Plain Error — The “Contemporaneous Objection” Rule	364
2. “Harmless” Error	366
a. Non-Constitutional Mistakes	366
b. Constitutional Errors	367

Contents

Examples/Explanations	370
C. Collateral Attack	373
1. State Collateral Review	373
2. Federal Habeas Corpus	377
a. A (Very) Short History of the “Great Writ” of Habeas Corpus	377
i. Generally	377
ii. Federal Habeas and the States — Federalism versus Fairness	378
b. Federal Habeas Corpus — Common Law and AEDPA	380
i. Timeliness	381
ii. Exhaustion of Remedies	382
iii. Procedural Default	384
(a) Overcoming Procedural Default — Cause	385
(b) Overcoming Procedural Default — Prejudice	388
(c) The Merits of the Claim	388
(i) Pure Legal Issues	388
a) Pre-AEDPA	388
b) AEDPA	389
(ii) “Issues of Fact” or “Mixed Questions of Fact and Law”	392
iv. A Short Assessment	394
v. Federal Habeas Corpus — Successive Petitions	395
3. Original Supreme Court Jurisdiction	396
4. Actual Innocence	397
a. Innocence Commissions	397
b. Actual Innocence in the Courts	398
Examples/Explanations	399

Chapter 14 Non-Criminal Remedies for Unacceptable Lawyering 411

A. Defining — And Understanding — “Misconduct”	412
1. Abuse of the Grand Jury	413
2. Investigative Issues	413
3. Plea Bargaining Tactics	414
4. Discovery Violations	414
5. Trial Problems	415
6. Post Conviction (In) Action	416
B. Alternative Remedies	416
1. Internal Supervision	416
2. Oversight By Attorneys	417
3. Oversight by Courts	418
4. Appellate Oversight — Naming Names	419
5. Disciplinary Sanctions	420

Contents

6. Whose Ethics? The McDade Amendment	422
7. “Show Me The Money” — Fines and Attorneys’ Fees as Sanctions; Raises for Good Lawyering	422
8. Lawsuits, Damages, and Civil Liability	423
9. Prosecutor Review Boards	426
C. An Exemplar — The Duke Lacrosse Case	426
1. The Example	428
D. Explanations	431
1. Non-Disclosure Questions	431
a. The DNA “Non-Matches”	431
i. Constitutional Questions	431
ii. Statutory Issues	432
iii. Ethics Violations	433
b. The Photographic Lineups	433
c. The Victim’s Statements	434
d. Nifong’s Press Conferences	434
e. Nifong’s Statements to the Court	434
2. Civil Liability	434
3. Overview of the Explanations	435
4. The “Result”	435
Chapter 15 Victim’s Rights	437
A. Introduction	437
B. The Victim Before Trial	439
C. The Victim at Trial	439
D. The Victim After Trial	440
Examples/Explanations	442
Table of Cases	445
Index	461